Magnum Standing Hip Abductor

Train legs and glutes with greater precision using the Magnum Standing Hip Abductor. Engineered for performance and comfort and thoughtfully designed to accommodate a wide range of users, this machine features multiple hand grips and a front ROM adjustment bumper, allowing lifters to dial in both their ideal starting setup and their hard stop position for a more personalized and effective workout. A direct mechanical linkage paired with a higher pivot point delivers a firm, smooth feel and a consistent strength curve throughout the movement, while premium contact points provide lasting comfort.
