NAUTILUS

Leverage Premier - Inclined Lever Row

The Nautilus Leverage Incline Lever Row is the ideal solution for targeting and strengthening the upper and middle back. Its two hand grip options allow for versatile exercises: a wide grip engages the lats and traps, enhancing back width, while a close grip focuses on the rhomboids and mid-back, improving posture and strength. Perfect for users of all levels, this machine features low load points for safe use, a 35 lb starting resistance, and a 315 lb max load. Its durable design includes rubber feet for floor protection and wear guards to maintain finish integrity.
